

The Getty museum Language learning

Conservation
Research
Foundation
Museum

Language(s) available	English
Category	Platform
Type of document	Lesson Plans for teachers and learners. Language learning through the Arts (Beginner Level)
Author(s)	Conservation Research Foundation Museum (The J. Paul Getty Museum)
Country of origin	United States of America
Targeted group	Teachers, Learners
Description	Language through the Arts (Beginning Level) (Education at the Getty): This curriculum from the J. Paul Getty Museum uses art objects as a catalyst to improve language skills, develop new vocabulary, and expose visitors to a variety of world cultures and experiences. It provides resources for teachers teaching English as a Second Language (ESL) while appealing to English language learners. These lessons are designed for students in grades K–12 and adult ESL students at the beginning level. Students learn new vocabulary and practise its use by viewing and describing various works of art, including paintings, drawings, art objects, and photographs.

Link	https://www.getty.edu/education/teachers/classroom_resources/curricula/esl3/esl3_lesson_plan_index.html