Description	The National Gallery of Art is an art museum in Washington, D.C., United States. It is one of the largest art museums in North America and houses an extensive collection of works of art. The museum's website offers resources for teachers, students and art lovers alike. The website offers a range of resources for teachers, including lesson ideas and activities, teaching resources for many grade levels, from pre-kindergarten to university. The website also offers online professional development courses and other opportunities, as well as information on planning field trips to the museum. These resources are designed to help educators integrate art into their teaching and provide students with
