

Khan Academy's Art History section

Language(s) available	English
Category	Teaching materials
Type of document	Library of online resources for teachers
Author(s)	Khan Academy
Country of origin	United States of America
Date and origin	2006
Targeted group	Khan Academy's Art History section is for learners of all ages and backgrounds who are interested in exploring and understanding art history. It offers courses, videos, articles and interactive resources to facilitate learning and engagement with the subject.
Description	Khan Academy is a non-profit educational organisation based in the United States that offers free online courses, lessons and resources on a variety of topics, including art history. Khan Academy has a global reach and provides educational resources in multiple languages to learners around the world. Khan Academy's Art History section is designed to help learners understand the history of humanity through art, from prehistoric representations to contemporary abstraction. It covers a wide range of art history topics and themes, including the art of the ancient Mediterranean and Europe, the art of mediaeval Europe and Byzantium, Renaissance art, modern and contemporary art, and much more.

Link	https://www.khanacademy.org/humanities/art-history#art-history-for-teachers