Description	“Fresh Meat for Critique 2020” continues the previous year’s tradition by exhibiting the graduation works of every Academy’s bachelor’s and master’s degree graduates to a wider audience. Altogether about 170 new and upcoming artists will introduce themselves, the results of their creative processes, and the environment in which they studied to the public. The previous exhibition was well received by students, visitors and industry specialists. It was

	also nominated for the award “Kilogram of Culture” in the 2019 summer vote. The name of the gallery – VirtùAAL – is a combination of Niccolò Machiavelli’s philosophical theoretical term virtù, which encompasses all the necessary qualities for “the achievement of great things” (this is also used as a general term for an art object), and the abbreviation for the Art Academy of Latvia.
